An integrated set of six essential elements is provided to help frame and reinforce the sustainable development agenda and ensure that the ambition and vision expressed by Member States communicates and is delivered at the country level:

- (a) Dignity: to end poverty and fight inequality,
- (b) People: to ensure healthy lives, knowledge and the inclusion of women and children,
- (c) Prosperity: to grow a strong, inclusive, and transformative economy,
- (d) Planet: to protect our ecosystems for all societies and our children,
- (e) Justice: to promote safe and peaceful societies and strong institutions,
- (f) Partnership: to catalyse global solidarity for sustainable development.

The report: The Road to Dignity by 2030 proposes one universal and transformative agenda for sustainable development, underpinned by rights, and with people and the planet at the centre. United Nations Secretary General • 04-12-2014
